

Counsel for Defendant, as an officer of this Court, has certified that the discovery issues raised in Plaintiff's motion to compel have been resolved and that the instant motion to compel is therefore moot. It appearing that the motion to compel is now moot, the motion to compel (DE-69) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Plaintiff may re-file the motion to compel if she believes that the newly-produced discovery is incomplete. If a subsequent motion to compel proves meritorious, Defendant is cautioned that the Court will impose sanctions pursuant to Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Raleigh, North Carolina this 1st day of April, 2013.
